OUR DANCE PROS

Terrilynn ("TL") & Chris Rader

TL & Chris' whirlwind career has taken them to over 141 cities in over 43 countries. They began teaching and performing together in 1996, and then coaching and competing all over North America. Their travels enabled them to receive training in acting, singing, and dancing from many esteemed directors and choreographers from around the world. They have travelled and performed all over the world as featured dancers on cruise ship main stages.

Their current ventures include TV, with TL as co-host of a LIVE daily "lifestyles" talk show called Daytime Ottawa. TL & Chris together were contributors for CBC's Living in Ottawa and BOLD Network's Creative Block. TL has appeared on CBC's "Rick Mercer Report", as well as "Steven & Chris", and CTV Morning Live. They also produced and hosted Crystal Leaf Ballroom and Latin Dance Championships, Toronto Open and Canadance Championships on Rogers TV. Chris is consistently one of the top 10 teachers at the international Ballroom dance competition La Classique. They teach, perform, compete in Pro-Am, and TL emcees Ballroom Competitions, and bring their zest for life and their love of people into living rooms and dance floors all over Canada!

Justine Rainville

Justine Rainville of Montreal is now part of the dance staff of EviActive's Passion to Dance cruises. Justine has been dancing for 15 years, both socially and competitively. She held 1st place title in the in the under-21 Amateur Latin championship and more recently in the "Rising Star" and Open Professional categories.

Justine's excellent dance and teaching abilities are supported by her diploma from the Canadian DanceSport Federation (CDF). She teaches both Latin and Standard in International Style, and both Rhythm and Smooth in American style. After teaching at the Arthur Murray Studios, Justine now calls Studio Danza her home, where she competes and teaches with her professional dance partner, Danny Arbour. Recently Justine assisted in teaching dancers on the Canadian version of "So You Think You Can Dance" and "Les Dieux de la Danse."

OUR DANCE HOST

Rob Scarth

Ladies, this year we are bringing our very own dance host to keep you on the dance floor and partner with you during group lessons. Rob lives in Toronto where he dances 5 nights a week in American style smooth and rhythm as well as hustle, Westcoast Swing and quickstep. Friends have observed, "Rob is a pretty good dancer but his samba sure could use work". TL thinks he is being modest. Rob is social dancer and avoids competition only because he doesn't want to wear one of those skintight shirts. Guess what he's getting as a gift? When he's not practicing dancing he devotes his time to his furniture making business at <http://609furnituredesigns.ca/>. Ladies, make Rob dance for his supper!
